

UNIT 1: VISTA BASICS

Lesson 1: Getting Your First Look

Logging On to Windows

Passwords

Creating Your Own Passwords

What Happens During the Startup Process?

The Vista Desktop

BEHIND THE SCREEN: Basic Computer Concepts

Using a Mouse

Mouse Motions

Using Sidebars and Gadgets

Clicking with the Right Mouse Button

Opening and Closing the Sidebar

Standard Gadgets

Docking and Undocking Gadgets

Logging Off and Switching Users

Switch User

Shutting Down Vista

Shut Down Methods

Restart

Sleep

Hibernate

Shut Down

Lesson 2: Starting Programs

Working with the Start Menu

About Commands

Start Menu Panes

Launching Programs

Recently Used Programs List

Pinning Programs to the Start Menu

Controlling Program Windows

Quick Sizing Buttons

Moving and Resizing Program Windows

Nonstandard Program Windows

Working with the Windows Taskbar

Notification Area

Quick Launch Toolbar

Multitasking

Program Switching

The Flip Command

BEHIND THE SCREEN: The Usefulness of Multitasking

Lesson 3: Working with a Program

Using Program Commands

Menu Bars

The Paint Toolbox

Saving Your Work

Where Your Work Is Located

Files and Folders

Choosing a Storage Location

Creating a Filename

Save Versus Save As

Using the Work Area

Mouse Pointers

Tool Options

Scroll Bars

Typing with WordPad

Toolbars

The Cursor and the Mouse Pointer

Special Keys on the Keyboard

Editing Text

Selecting Text

Formatting Text

Using Cut, Copy, and Paste

UNIT 2: FILE MANAGEMENT

Lesson 4: Finding Files

Storage Media

Types of Drives

How Vista Displays Drives

Plugging In and Unplugging a Flash Drive

BEHIND THE SCREEN: Drive Designations

Using Windows Explorer

Common Folder Window Tasks

Personal Folders

Public Folders

Navigating Your Drives and Folders

The Address Bar

Back and Forward Buttons

BEHIND THE SCREEN: Units of Measure for Com

Changing the Folder View

Identifying the Contents of a Folder

The Folders Pane

Searching for Files

How Search Works

Lesson 5: Storing Files

Creating Folders

Procedures for Creating New Folders

Creating Subfolders

BEHIND THE SCREEN: How Files Are Stored in Your Computer

Moving and Copying Folders and Files

The Cut, Copy, and Paste Method

How the Commands Work

The Drag and Drop Method

Selecting Multiple Files

Deleting and Restoring Folders and Files

The Recycle Bin

Deleting Folders and Files

Folder and File Restore

Organizing Digital Pictures and Videos

Via Folders

Via Windows Photo Gallery

Via Organizer and Album Programs

Burning CDs and DVDs

About CD/DVD Media

Vista's CD/DVD Burning Utility

Third-Party Burning Utilities

UNIT 3: BEYOND THE BASICS

Lesson 6: Using the Internet

Internet Basics

Equipment Used to Connect to the Internet

Connection Types

Web Browsers

URL (Uniform Resource Locator)

Understanding URLs

Basic Navigation

Hyperlinks

Tabbed Browsing

Favorites

Basic Web Search

How Search Engines Work

Basic Search Techniques

BEHIND THE SCREEN: The World of Search Engines

Internet Threats and Defense

Firewall Software

Antivirus Software

Updating Your Antivirus Software

BEHIND THE SCREEN: Securing Your Computer

Lesson 7: Vista Help and the Control Panel

Windows Help and Support

Keyword Search

Contents Search

Including Online Help

Windows Help Online

The Windows Control Panel

Control Panel Views

Defragmenting a Drive

Installing Software

What Happens During Installation

Installing Software from a Disc

Uninstalling, Changing, and Repairing Software

Downloading Programs from the Web

Controlling the Screen

BEHIND THE SCREEN: Resolutions and Your Monitor

Screen Resolution Settings

LCD Panels and Wide Screens

Background Images

Disk Management

Defragmentation

Scheduling Defragment

Disk Cleanup

Windows Update

What Windows Update Does

What Are System Files?

What Happens During the Installation Process?

BEHIND THE SCREEN: The Trend toward Automation

System Restore

How It Works

When to Manually Make a Restore Point

Appendix A:

Storing Your Exercise Files